Introduction

The function of this booklet is to help you pray. Many times, we don't know how our prayers should be formed, or our prayer lives become dry. Even the disciples of Jesus asked Him to teach them how to pray [Luke 11:1]. This book helps when you have exhausted your prayers, and don't know what to pray next. It also helps you to pray more thoroughly and in depth. The Bible says that “All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness” [2 Timothy 3:16] (emphasis added). Jesus quoted from the Old Testament when He said “Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every Word that proceeds out of the mouth of God” [Deuteronomy 8:3, Matthew 4:4, Luke 4:4]. If we pray according to these and all scriptures, we live by the Word of God and have a deep prayer life, even as Jesus did.

Basic Usage

This book is generally organized so you can pray "Help me (...)" or "Lord Jesus, help me (...)" The prayer help "Be perfect", for example, means "Lord Jesus, help me be perfect." However, not every prayer help is this way. For example, a prayer help such as "Lord give me warnings of things to come" is complete all by itself. Use common sense when praying according to these words, as they are not simply words to be spoken. They are to be prayed from your heart, in faith. Otherwise you pray them in vain [Exodus 20:7, Matthew 6:7, 15:7-9, James 1:26]. Don't feel bound to a certain prayer style, but let every prayer come from your heart, using these helps in a way that fits your own prayer style.

Special Features

Parentheses generally indicate a descriptive meaning of a word, or an expansion on the purpose of the text. For example, in the prayer help "Not call my brother Raca (senseless, worthless)", the words in parentheses explain the meaning of the untranslated and ambiguous word "Raca". In the prayer help “To be a child of Abraham (a child of faith)”, the phrase in parentheses indicates the purpose of being called a spiritual child of Abraham. Use understanding and wisdom when reading and praying. Some meaning can only be understood by reading the scriptures in depth yourself.

When short descriptions are inadequate, you will see full and detailed explanations in a box below a prayer help. These explanations will assist your understanding of the scriptures. Praying words without understanding their meaning is worthless and hypocritical, but prayer with wisdom and knowledge is of great value [1 Corinthians 14:9-20, 1 John 5:14-15].

Final Remarks

Whenever you are confused about a prayer help, you are encouraged to open your Bible to the chapter where the prayer help is found. The numbers in this book indicate the chapter number where you can reference the Word of God. Ask God for wisdom to pray. He will not punish you for asking for wisdom [James 1:5].

Jesus was speaking in a parable about Himself in this scripture. In this area, He speaks of Himself as the stone which the builders (the religious leaders) rejected, and has become the head of the corner (the topmost cornerstone, meaning He is honored above all). He speaks of falling on the stone and being broken, meaning falling into the hands of Jesus with a broken and contrite spirit. The Lord will not despise or reject a broken and contrite heart [Psalms 34:18, 51:17]. He also speaks of the stone falling on some, meaning the wrath of God falling on their life.

Explanation

The talent has more than one meaning. It can mean your God-given ability, or your goods, or it can mean money.

We are the earth, since we are made from the dust of the ground. We don't want to hide our God-given abilities inside ourselves. Abilities such as singing, preaching, playing music, skillful work, etc. are given by God for the purpose of saving souls. Instead of hiding those abilities (or using them solely for personal gain), we want to gain souls into the kingdom of heaven with our abilities.

In the case of our goods, Jesus told us to give to the poor, and we will have treasure in heaven. He also told us that when we have a feast, invite the poor, the maimed, the lame and the blind. If we are unable to help the poor ourselves, the exchanger can be an organization or church that accepts donations to help or feed the poor. However, the gain, usury, or interest, in doing it this way is smaller than the next method.

In the case of money, we don't want to hide our money (even in the banks), but instead give it to the exchanger (the gospel minister) to make gain. When we give our money to the minister, he gains souls for the kingdom. This is the usury, or interest, that Jesus speaks about.

- Have a humble spirit, take the lowest seat
- To abase myself
- To call the poor, maimed, lame, blind, to feast

Explanation

The supper has more than one meaning. The Bible says “the Word (of God) was made flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth” [John 1:14]. Jesus said “I am the bread of life...” [John 6:35] “... and the bread that I will give is my flesh...” [John 6:51]. Therefore, eating supper with Jesus means eating the bread of life - hearing the Word of God. In this parable, we are bidden, called, to a supper to eat that bread of life. This is where two meanings are shown. In one case, we are called by the minister of the gospel to hear the Word of God. In the second case, we are called to the great marriage supper in heaven. In both instances, we are often inclined to make excuses to avoid church, or tent revivals, or heaven itself. Let’s rid ourselves of such excuses as “I’m tired”, “I’m busy”, “I don’t feel like it”, “I’m sick”, “Maybe next time” etc.
